P.S.Patwalia, J. (Oral) :

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that his client should not be penalised for the fault of the counsel. He further states that the first appeal was filed only in August 2006. He further undertakes to be prepared to argue the case on 6.1.2007 and not seek any adjournment in the matter.

In view of the above I deem it appropriate to dispose of this revision petition without issuing any notice to the respondent.

The interim stay granted by the first appellate court which was vacated by the order dated 25.11.2006 shall continue till 6.1.2007. On that date the appeal shall be argued on merits. In case it has to be adjourned for any reason other than the request made by the petitioner herein the court would consider the desirability of extending the interim order.

With the aforesaid observations the present revision petition is disposed of. Copy of this order be given dasti to learned counsel for the petitioner under the signatures of the Reader/Court Secretary.
